

Carreg yr Wyddfa Conclave No 633 – Consecration

The Province of Cheshire & North Wales recently gained its newest Conclave in Carreg yr Wyddfa Conclave No. 633. It means Stone of Snowdon, the correct spelling being pointed out by a kind reader of the weekly MMH newsletter.

The Most Worthy Grand Supreme Ruler, Andrew Sweeney, together with a Consecrating team of actual and acting Grand Officers, led both the Consecration and the Installation of the Primus Supreme Ruler, Worthy Brother Martin Wynne Jones.

The founders, numbering 16, then elected a further 6 candidates for Induction at their first meeting on 17 March 2022.

Of course, all of the Consecrating team were made honorary members of the new Conclave, along with the Provincial Grand Supreme Ruler, David Littlewood.

The new Conclave now represents the western-most boundary of the Province, and the members are optimistic of attracting more new Secret Monitors in the near future.

Anyone interested in attending the next meeting, or finding out more about membership, should contact the Primus Secretary, WyBro Colin Lewis, celewis0304@btinternet.com.
