21st. December 2021.

Very dear Brethren all,

Who, in December last year would have thought we would be back in a similar situation this December.

Whilst we, as a Province, have weathered the past eighteen months very well, we cannot deny the effect this pandemic has had, and continues to have, on Freemasonry in general.

The tragic loss of individual members during this time has left us with sadness, but fond memories of those who have found solace in that Grand Conclave above.

Christmas approaches, a time for rejoicing and a new year, a time for renewal. This Province has managed to increase the number of Conclaves we can attend, move further into North Wales, a part of the Province relatively untouched in places like Anglesey and the whole of the Llyn peninsular, whilst we continue to have good list of potential inductees.

Is there a place for daytime Conclave in the East of the Province?

Brethren, I congratulate you all in the ways you have found to defeat the Covid difficulties, though we still need to be careful, I do hope that those triple vaccinated Brethren will find the courage and contentment to return to their Conclaves next year, even with the necessary continuing precautions.

This coming Saturday we will remember the 'reason for the Season', celebrate with loved ones and enjoy the festivities, as I have previously asked however, please remember those who may be alone, not just our Conclave Brethren or the Conclave widows, but all friends and neighbours, let us prove the fundamental ethos of this wonderful Order.

I thank you all for a good 2021, wish you and yours a very merry Christmas and look to the future for a joyous and healthy 2022.

Stay safe

In the Friendship of the Order

Provincial Grand Supreme Ruler
