16th. February 2022.

Very Dear Brethren all,

I write to advise you that the M. Wy. Grand Supreme Ruler has accepted my letter of retirement from the role of Provincial Grand Supreme Ruler for this wonderful Province, with effect from midnight on Tuesday 14th. June 2022.

Having completed five years in the role, and a further year as the Deputy Provincial Grand Supreme Ruler, it is my intention to spend more time with my long suffering Wife, Barbara, and our family.

Brethren I have been privileged to have been in the right place, at the right time to have become the head of a fantastic group of Secret Monitors. I have been impressed by the kind friendship and hard work of so many members and I thank you all for that honour.

I hope that I have served you well and with humility and humour.

The Grand Supreme Ruler is considering the appointment of my successor and I have no doubts that you will support him in his responsibilities as you have done for me. An announcement on succession will be made in due course.

Stay safe and may you continue to enjoy the fun and friendship of this Order of the Secret Monitor.

In the Friendship of the Order

Provincial Grand Supreme Ruler
Province of Cheshire and North Wales
