

MORE NEW MEMBERS TO COMPLETE THE SEASON

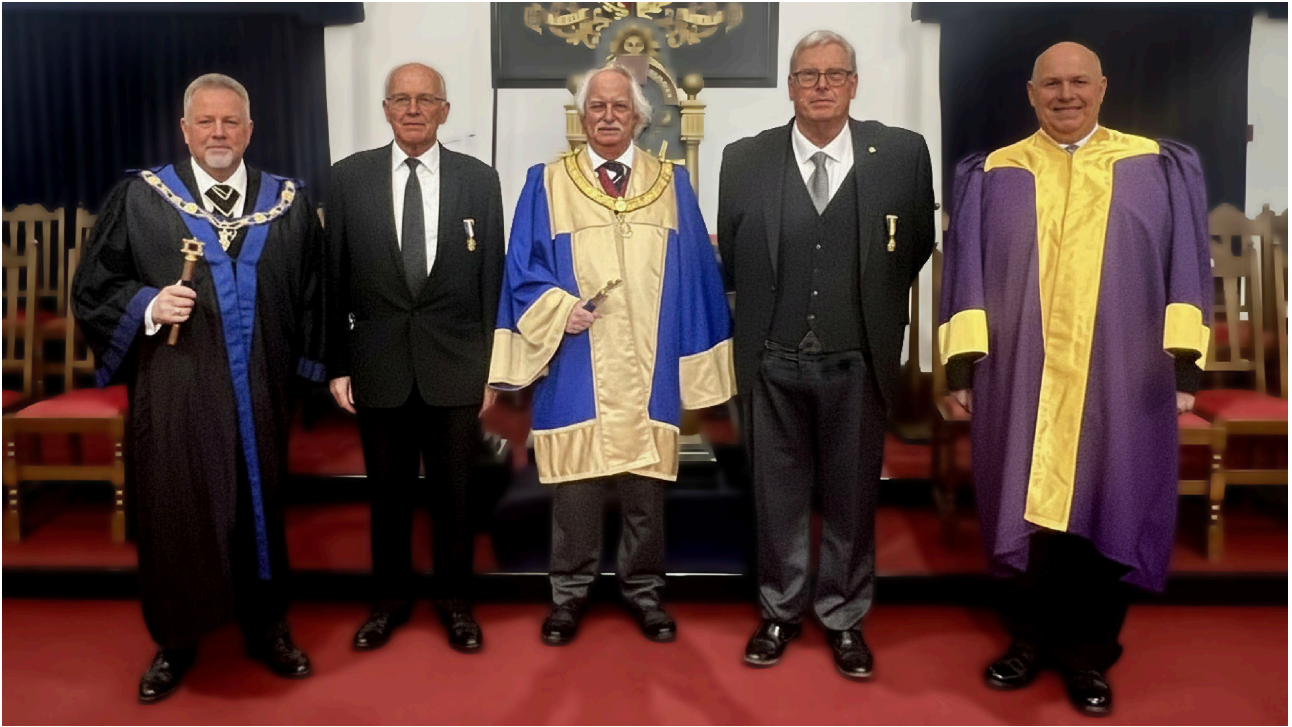

The Order of the Secret Monitor doesn't have Masonic Seasons, as such.

The lack of Masonic meetings in the Craft during the summer months means we attract even more enthusiastic Freemasons to our gatherings.

One such meeting was held at the end of July, attracting 44 Secret Monitors to witness an excellent ceremony of Induction for two new members: Brothers Felix Clarke and Robert Salmon.

Sadly, due to a hospital appointment, the presiding Supreme Ruler was unable to attend, so the Immediate Past Supreme Ruler, Worthy Brother Ian Brown, took the Chair and delivered an outstanding ceremony, assisted by Officers of the Conclave and visiting Brethren.

After the ceremony, the acting Conclave Secretary gave Notice of Motion for the Conclave to change their meeting dates, which will be voted upon at their next meeting on 30 September. Should the ballot prove successful, the following meeting of the Conclave will be on Tuesday 23 February, 2027.
